Dedication

MR. ELLIOT STEVENS

In appreciation of his help and good humor when it was most needed, and to one who is most deserving of the honor, the class of nineteen sixty-two proudly dedicates this yearbook to Mr. Elliot Stevens.

FOREWORD

"The woods are lovely, dark, and deep;
But I have promises to keep,
And miles to go before I sleep,
And miles to go before I sleep."

Robert Frost

Here we have a New England poet and a poem that typifies New England. This is our theme - the place where we were born; the place that is home; the place that we love.

We have tried to create a picture memorial for you of the youthful and happy days spent here. We hope we have succeeded to make this a book that you will cherish through the years.

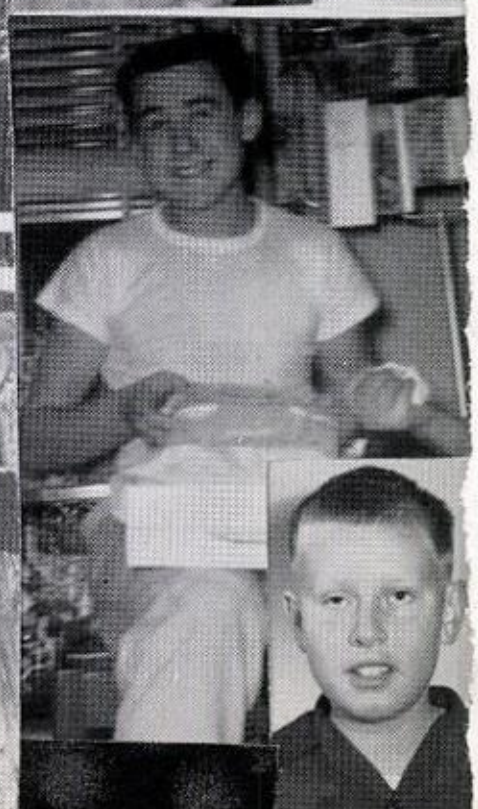
Through their contributions, these people have helped to make the PROCTORIAN possible. The senior class gratefully extends its thanks to them.

It also acknowledges Morris Studios of Barre, whose untiring photographers have given us a permanent record of our days at Proctor High School.



Sheila — Dear — (?)

No, I won't be wise — since you're reformed, & will too. And last summer is a thing of the past!

Really, I wish you the greatest happiness in the years ahead of you — and hope you will never be too disappointed — in people, in life — Because right now you have so much to live for — The Point is never that far — and I'm sure you'll be the best of Such a Darling, I don't see how they/ can be anything but the best — Don't forget to write! Ha.

Vous êtes merveilleuse — et moi, je suis merveilleuse aussi! Nous sommes les bonnes amies - Toujours.

Love Linda

Sheila,

we have a wonderful time, and take it easy on the booze."
Tom

Sheila,

So one of my everlasting friends. I'll really miss you next year, but I hope you'll keep in touch so things won't be too bad. Never forget our friendship, please. God Love You and grant you the best.

Love you,

Leslie

Sheila,

to a nut I never knew until recently. I wish I had known you sooner – what a sentence! I love your "love". Best of luck + God Bless You.

Love ya.

Sheila – So a sweet kid. Be of a sweet kid. Be good and stay as sweet as always.

Love ya.

Irene

Sheila,

June 13, 1962; what happened on this day? Sh-h-h-h; hmm No one will ever know how bad you were, will they? At least not for a while, until it squeals.

Bye Bye You

Nick
